

PRESENTING YOUR ARTWORK FOR EXHIBITION:

MATTING AND FRAMING TECHNIQUES

This workshop is open to all artists who would like to exhibit their work and need instruction on matting, framing and presentation.

WHO: JUDY KULA – Judy is a drawing instructor at Phoenix College and an art and illustration instructor at The Desert Botanical Garden. She has taught workshops and pre-school through post grad levels at various venues across the country. Judy holds a BS, MS and Ed.D in art education. Judy is presently enjoying the resurgence in silverpoint drawing and is challenged by the application of an almost forgotten process to the newer surfaces and mixed media of today. Her drawings have been exhibited nationally and are in various collections.

WHEN: Saturday, January 30, 2010 9 A.M. until Noon

WHERE: The AAG Building, 18411 N 7th Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85023

WHAT: This workshop is designed for anyone interested in learning the accepted process of matting and framing for exhibition purposes. Participants will learn “the why and the how”. Examples of already matted and framed works will be presented for discussion and critique. There will be a demonstration of matting, and all individuals will have the opportunity to cut a small mat. All mat cutting tools and supplies will be provided.

COST: $35 for AAG Members; $45 for non-members. Write checks payable to Arizona Artists Guild.

REGISTER: Class size is limited. E-mail or telephone Suzanne O’Malley: suzz@cox.net or (602) 843-8789
