All submitted work must be available by drop off times listed and may not be picked up before listed pick up times. Shemer's Museum Curators will organize and curate the annual New Art in Arizona (scholarship) exhibition at Shemer Art Center and Museum within the listed time frame. Artists are responsible for delivery of their artwork and for the pick-up of their artwork, while curators will be responsible for installation and publicity etc. Additional assistance with publicity such as passing out show cards and e-blasts will be greatly appreciated. Full participation at the exhibition's reception is required, as scholarships will be awarded at that time and awardees will be asked to briefly introduce themselves. Scholarship recipients are also asked to give a 10 minute presentation on March 19, 2019 at Arizona Artist Guild. Scholarship recipients will be contacted with specific information regarding each of these events. Contact information provided should be clearly printed and accurate and winners must reply within an appropriate time frame to be awarded.
