

ABOUT THE JUROR

Jace Becker, Joshua Haunschild, and Kari Wehrs MFA Candidates in the Arizona State University Photography Program. Their interests encompass a desire to redefine photography in the digital age.

- Becker explores the darker sides of introspection, and dissects the nature of photography itself through experiments with photographic emulsion.
- Haunschild creates site-specific photographic installations to explore land usage in the American West.
- Wehrs employs 19th century photographic techniques to explore the history of the medium and its modern implications.
