A note from the President, Ivan Halvorson

Let's kick this New Year off with a bang. What was your New Year's resolution? Mine was to improve my drawing skills. Perhaps I can learn to draw more like the great masters. Take a look at Vincent Van Gogh's - The Potato Eaters. With total and absolute dedication to his craft, Vincent produced this masterpiece in a dark room with oil lamps for light. Just imagine what you and I can do today with electricity and all the modern conveniences.

AAG is a good place to develop your skills. There is Open Studio twice a week where you can do your art work with other artists and learn from their experiences. Then there is life drawing every Tuesday and Thursday with live models. Plus AAG has educational demos and workshops every month. And the coffee pot is always on so get involved.

Arthur Norby's sculpture workshop has been postponed. Be sure to check the website for updated information. In the workshop, he will show you how to take a sculpture from the armature to a finished product. On January 10, Tess Mosko Scherer has a digital media lab. There you will learn to use the World Wide Web to your advantage. And on February 20, John Erwin (Watercolor John) will teach the art of watercolor painting. This promises to be a fun filled educational workshop. His fast, free and elegant painting style will be a great learning experience.

I would like to congratulate all the people who attended Artstravaganza. It was a total success. This proves art can be fun and educational. And special thanks to the people who made it happen. David Bradley's raku kiln lighting up the night sky is an experience we will never forget. Many people took home beautiful works of art and memories that will last a lifetime.

I would like to remind you to check out AAG's website -ArizonaArtistsGuild.net - stay informed and get involved.

Plus, be sure to enjoy your own art work because creative happy people generally have better health and live longer.

In closing let's look forward to a fun filled, exciting, productive and educational 2020 at AAG.

Be sure you are at the General meeting on January 21, 5PM. We will celebrate last year's successes and talk about next year's plans. Plus there will be an exciting free live demo by Watercolor John. It does not get better than that!

See you January 21, 5PM at AAG.

Ivan Halvorson

Sculptor's Group Meeting

Monday, January 6, 2020

Jane Kelsey-Mapel

7:00-9:00 pm | Location: AAG

Jane will present a power point presentation of her work followed by a demonstration of her clay sculpting techniques. There should be time for a short critique of members work afterwards. Please be sure to bring work for the critique.

Jane Kelsey-Mapel is a Phoenix based artist. She exhibits her ceramic figure sculpture nationally and has had work featured in U.S. and international publications such as “Ceramics Monthly” and “Sculpture” magazine from Beijing, China. Her work is held in numerous public and private collections including the Racine Art Museum, Racine, Wisconsin, the City of Phoenix Collection of Contemporary Arizona Ceramic Art at the Phoenix Airport Museum and the Arizona State University Art Museum Ceramics Research Center.

Jane holds a Master of Fine Arts in Ceramics from the University of North Texas and a Bachelor of Arts in Art from Arizona State University. She has taught both full time and part time at universities and colleges in Texas and Arizona and currently teaches ceramic figure sculpture at the Shemer Art Center and the Mesa Arts Center.

In speaking about her work, Jane says “What really drives my art is a desire to communicate. I’m fascinated by the challenge of transforming an abstract idea into a concrete visual image. I create figures in clay and mixed media with the intention that they transcend the inanimate nature of their materials. I seek to create a psychological presence in each piece that elicits an emotional response from the viewer.”

ARTSTRAVAGANZA!

Friday, December 13, 2019

Our annual fund raiser was as a huge success!! A good time was had by all in this fun-filled night of creativity, laughter, and color in artist-led activities. Thanks to all who came out to make it so much fun, and all who volunteered their time and resources to support our Outreach and Scholarship Programs. Here are just a few images from the night.

RAKU POTTERY FIRING WITH DAVID L. BRADLEY was so much fun. Participants experienced the magic of Raku! Each person selected a one-of-a-kind ceramic piece made by David L. Bradley. Each piece was glazed and fired on the spot. Everyone left with a beautiful one-of-a-kind sculpture.

WATERCOLOR PAINTING WITH JOHN ERWIN introduced many to the joys of watercolor painting. John led a watercolor painting activity creating a finished painting of chili peppers, a cactus and a few other unique paintings. John's lighthearted approach to teaching watercolor made this a fun-filled event with laughter and creativity abounding. Each person left with at least one finished painting.

BLOWN GLASS ORNAMENTS WITH TJ MARCO OF PHOENIX ARTS BY FIRE

Each participant had the unique experience of creating a blown glass ornament. Guided by master glass artists each multi-colored glass ornament turned out unique and one was more beautiful than the next!

ALCOHOL INK WITH CAROLE MATTHEWS and MARJIE ROGERS

Carole and Marjie led us on an exciting adventure of color and flow. Everyone who embarked on this creative journey explored the endless possibilities of Alcohol Ink on various surfaces from ceramic tile, yupo paper, and more.

PRINTMAKING WITH ALICE PELCHAT AND LAURA COHEN-HOGAN

Alice Pelchat, assisted by Laura Cohen-Hogan led you in an activity in creating contemporary mono- prints, creating free form images working with inks or paints on a printing plate resulting in a unique image printed on paper. The results were stunning!!!

AAG's Community Outreach Art Programs

Since its inception in 1928, Arizona Artists Guild has promoted the arts through education, exhibition and outreach.

Community outreach is the cornerstone of the Arizona Artists Guild's activities and is the main focus of our organization. We recognize the impact that art has on people's lives and its potential for facilitating healing which is immeasurable. AAG recognizes the value of the arts in how it enriches lives. Guild members and Outreach Program participants alike relate stories about how their lives were changed through their own exposure to Fine Art, be it at an early age or later in life when they could pursue a life long urge that had been repressed due to family and career obligations.

AAG provides free monthly art classes to underserved segments of our community who find an improved quality of life through making art.

Veterans Art Classes: AAG provides free art instruction for Veterans of US military service and are supported in part by the Arizona Art Alliance which receives support from the Arizona Department of Veteran Services.

Veterans Art Classes meets on the fourth Saturday of the month from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Contact David Bradley davlbradly@gmail.com to register or volunteer.

Women's Veterans Art Classes meet on the third Monday of each month from 5:00 - 8:30 pm. Contact Tess Mosko Scherer admin@arizonaartistsguild.net to register or volunteer

Survivors of Suicide Art Class:

This program is designed specifically for friends and families who have lost a loved one to suicide as well as those who have attempted suicide and survived. This project is supported in partnership and funding from Your Art Your Story. Register online at ArizonaArtistsGuild.net or Contact Tess Mosko Scherer admin@arizonaartistsguild.net to register or volunteer

The Mosaics: AAG offers monthly art classes to Native American Elders and Non-English Speaking Adult Refugees who are isolated due to age and language. They face the challenges associated with creating new friends and building community. Art becomes the common language and is often the only language spoken. Contact Karen Weingartner for additional information and to volunteer: kareninsun@gmail.com.

Please Help Support AAG's Outreach Art Programs with your time or resources.

AAG Critique Groups

The AAG Critique groups are small groups of members who meet monthly for a group critique.

Open to AAG members, each group consists of about 10 people. Once the maximum is reached, the group is closed and a list of interested members is started for forming a new group.

If you are interested in participating in a critique group, email: info@arizonaartistsguild.net.
