A WORD FROM AAG PRESIDENT, IVAN HALVORSON.....

Valentine's Day is here again and it's a good time to think about the people who have touched your life in a positive way. Also it is good time to celebrate the great artists that were born in February. Pierre-Auguste Renoir (February 25, 1841), Thomas Cole 1801, Norman Rockwell 1894, Rembrandt Peal 1778 and more. If you read the life stories of these artists you will soon discover the dedication, commitment and focus they had. Truly all things come to those who persist.

This tiny 5.5 inch by 9 inch painting by Monet was valued at 100,000 dollars. You can do a painting like this and now is a good time to dig in and start producing your masterpieces. The weather in February is perfect for outdoor painting. If you are interest in landscape or cityscape painting the Plein Air Painters of Arizona meet at the AAG building on the first Thursday of each month. Drop in and see what is going on. They have paint-outs once a week in Phoenix and area. Also they have a painting demo at each meeting.

Also on February 21, 2020 John Erwin will be doing an all day watercolor workshop. There will be a strong focus on landscapes and cityscapes plus he usually teaches some flower painting. This promises to be a fun filled educational workshop. His fast, free and elegant painting style will be a great learning experience. I will be there for sure as he has promised to teach the secret of cityscape watercolor painting. On a side note, if you are interest in watercolor painting Gary Tucker has a wealth of videos on You Tube. They are all free.

Bill Lundquist has been a professional artist for over fifty years. For three decades he has been affiliated with Scottsdale Artists' School and has been a continuous instructor there for the past twenty-two years teaching students to draw and paint. Using a constructive, straightforward approach augmented by demonstrations and individual help, Bill is there to assist artists on their journey to achieving artistic competence and creative expression. American Artist magazine featured him in their February 2009 issue in an article called, A Journey That Never Ends.

Also Tess Mosko Scherer has a digital workshop every month. Learn how to get your artwork on the web. The future of promoting your art work is on the world wide web and the world is waiting for your masterpiece to appear.

There is life drawing every Tuesday and Thursday with live models. See the website for more info.

A good way to get involved with the AAG is to attend the free Open Studio on Monday mornings from 9 to noon. Bring something to work on and share your art related experiences with everyone. And the coffee pot is always on so join us and get involved.

I would like to remind you to check out AAG's website – ArizonaArtistsGuild.net - there is a lot going on.

In closing, be sure you are at the General meetings on February 18 and March 17, at 5PM. In February there will be an exciting free live demo by Bill Lundquist and in March the Scholarship Recipients will present their work. It does not get better than that.

See you at the AAG February 18 and March 17 at 5PM.

Ivan Halvorson

ARTS OPPORTUNITIES

Desert Ridge Plein Air Painting Festival

Event Date: March 7, 2020

Phoenix, AZ

FREE TO PARTICIPATE & CASH PRIZES

The festival provides a unique opportunity for artists to create original painted artworks live and in the open air, capturing the essence of a vibrant retail and community space while inviting shoppers to experience the sight, sound, and even texture of the plein air process. 30 artists will compete in the painting competition with $1,600 in cash prizes and a chance to become part of the official Desert Ridge Plein Air Gallery.

From Broken to Beautiful: The Art of Resilience

The exhibition theme, From Broken to Beautiful: The Art of Resilience is inspired by the Japanese art of Kintsugi. Starting in the 15th century, Japanese monks used gold dust and resin to repair broken ceramics. The resulting pieces not only incorporated unique cracks into the design but also strengthened and added to the beauty of the piece. This art form is often seen as a metaphor for brokenness and healing—that embracing one's brokenness and imperfections can create something unique, beautiful and strong.

La Frontera/Empact and Life Arts Wellness Studio invite local artists to participate in a juried exhibition at the 2020 Take Back the Night event in downtown Phoenix. Take Back the Night is an international movement with the mission of ending sexual, relationship, and domestic violence in all forms. Sadly, very few of us will live a life untouched by these forms of interpersonal violence. The dual purpose of this exhibit is to raise awareness of the issue, and show support for survivors.

AAG's Community Outreach Art Programs

Since its inception in 1928, Arizona Artists Guild has promoted the arts through education, exhibition and outreach.

Community outreach is the cornerstone of the Arizona Artists Guild's activities and is the main focus of our organization. We recognize the impact that art has on people's lives and its potential for facilitating healing which is immeasurable. AAG recognizes the value of the arts in how it enriches lives. Guild members and Outreach Program participants alike relate stories about how their lives were changed through their own exposure to Fine Art, be it at an early age or later in life when they could pursue a life long urge that had been repressed due to family and career obligations.

AAG provides free monthly art classes to segments of our community who find an improved quality of life through making art.

Veterans Art Classes: AAG provides free art instruction for Veterans of US military service and are supported in part by the Arizona Art Alliance which receives support from the Arizona Department of Veteran Services. Two classes are offered each month.

Veterans Art Classes meets on the fourth Saturday of the month from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.
